MRS. MICHAEL ELTON PORTON
the former Miss Lynn Renee' Reynolds

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

New Hope Baptist Church decorated with ferns and garden flowers and by using trellises interlaced with green vines and arbors took on the appearance of an old-fashioned flower garden on Saturday, July 15, at 8:00 when Miss Lynn Renee' Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Reynolds, was married to Mr. Michael Elton Porton, son of Mrs. Ann G. Porton and the late Elton F. Porton. Candlelight provided a soft illumination for the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Clarence H. Davis, pastor of the church.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Tamara D. Nash, soloist, who sang "The Wedding Song", "Each for the Other", and the "Wedding Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Jimison on the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of white crepe fashioned with an empire waisted and belted waistline. The bodice was trimmed in alonceau lace that extended over the shoulders. The sleeves were long and trimmed at the wrist with lace cut outs, buttons and loop closures. The skirt was pleated into the waistline and fell into a chapel length train. The skirt was completely edged in alonceau lace. Her veil was a Juliet cap covered with lace flowers and decorated with pearls, and completely edged with a single strand of pearls and appliqued with flowers and sprinkled with pearls. She carried a cascade of white and apricot spring flowers.

Miss Donna Rae Mitchell of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length apricot gown of polyester organza fashioned with a set-in waistline v-neckline with a bustle and bow trim and capelet sleeves. She carried an apricot parasol in sheer woven polyster to match her gown.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan C. Porton of Lynchburg, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Evelyn Y. Crain and Miss Bernete E. Moore of Appomattox. Their gowns and parasols were like the honor attendants.

Miss Martha K. Coleman, of Prospect, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length white crepe gown with apricot trim. Master Rodney W. Dearn of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mr. Jeffrey T. Porton of Appomattox, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. R. Dillard Reynolds, brother of the bride, Mr. James D. Miller, and Mr. Joseph Neal Foxwell, of Appomattox.

Directors were Mrs. Margie Reider and Mrs. Sallie Moore. Miss Rita L. Reynolds was guest book attendant. Miss Teresa Almond of Concord and Miss Vickie Duff of Appomattox were special attendants.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. The reception was hosted by Mrs. Doris Mitchell, Mrs. Merle Nash, Mrs. Hazel Reynolds, Mrs. Patricia G. Moore, Mrs. Mary F. Moore, aunts of the bride and bridegroom; Mrs. Gloria Deaner, Mrs. Dale Goodrich and Mrs. Rosiland Whitely, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Ann Childress.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed at National Auto Parts, Inc., in Appomattox and the bridegroom is also a graduate of Appomattox County High School and attended Central Virginia Community College. He is employed at Virginia Fibre Corporation in Amherst.

After a Southern wedding trip the couple will live in Appomattox.

"Kid's Krusade" Planned At Pentecostal Church

The Appomattox Pentecostal Holiness Church will be hosting a Kid's Krusade July 24 through July 28th from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

The theme of the Krusade is "My Wonderful Lord" and is based on Isaiah 9:6, "And His Name Shall Be Called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." The missionary story for the week will be on the Life of "Hudson Taylor, Apostle to Inland China."

There will be special prizes, games and singing along with the stories and lessons.

The Krusade will be conducted by the Eastern Virginia Impact Team, a group of teenagers who have given part of their summer vacation to travel and tell about Christ.

The church is located at 212 North Church Street. For further information call 352-2266.

Everyone is invited to attend this exciting Krusade.
